Dear Mr. Anderson:

Please pass my sincere congratulations to the entire Defense Acquisition University team members on their recent selection as the Best Overall Corporate University, Best Virtual Corporate University, and Best Use of Technology. The dedication and commitment of each member was key during the Corporate University Best in Class evaluation process. As innovative trainers and enablers, the DAU team truly stood out among the best of the best. I am extremely proud of this recognition. The DAU team is providing outstanding training for our workforce and is highly regarded by our professionals. After the award announcement, I received numerous compliments regarding their professionalism and commitment to excellence. Please let them know how much I value their contributions.

I would also like to congratulate you on being selected as the Corporate University Leader of the Year. This is a real testimony to you as a strategic visionary and a transformational leader. You are charting the course for acquisition, technology, and logistics training to ensure superior support to the warfighter and the nation.

Thanks to you and the entire DAU team for a job well done!

Sincerely,
