

SUMMARY OF REGULATIONS IMPLEMENTING SIX ELEMENTS
REQUIRED BY DAWIA

A Charter

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, published the charter for the university structure. The charter established a collaborative relationship between DAU, Directors of Acquisition Career Management (DACMS), functional boards, and the Director Acquisition Education Training and Career Development (AET&CD).

A Mission (to include developing education, training, research, and publications capabilities in the area of acquisition)

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, published DAU's mission to (1) train professionals for effective service in the Defense Acquisition System, (2) achieve more efficient and effective use of available acquisition resources by coordinating DoD acquisition education and training programs and tailoring them to support the careers of personnel in acquisition positions, and (3) and develop education, training, research, and publications capabilities in the area of acquisition.

Lines of Authority

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, established DAU's organization and management. A consortium structure was established to serve under a President who reported to the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition). Consortium members remained part of their existing commands.

A framework that shall cover courses from the basic through intermediate and senior levels. At the senior level, the framework shall provide for a senior course

DoD Directive 5000.52, Defense Acquisition Education and Training Program, issued October 15, 1991, was revised updating policy and responsibilities for a career development program. The 1990 Manual 5000.52-M, Career Development Program for Acquisition Personnel was a companion to DoDD 5000.52. Responsibility for career development of the acquisition workforce was assigned through DAWIA to the Director Acquisition Education Training and Career Development (AET&CD).

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, established a senior acquisition course at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces (ICAF), National Defense University. While not mandatory for certification, it was to be the capstone course for all members of the acquisition corps, regardless of career field.

A framework for a policy guidance council composed of senior DoD officials and a board of visitors

DoD Instruction 5000.58, Defense Acquisition Workforce, issued January 14, 1991, established the Defense Acquisition Career Development Council (DACDC). Chaired by the USD(A), its members were senior Department officials who had oversight of acquisition career development.

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, required a Board of Visitors (BoV) be chartered. Persons were selected for their preeminence in the fields of academia, business, and the defense industry, to advise on organization management, curricula, methods of instruction, facilities, and other matters of interest to the university.

A centralized mechanism to control the allocation of resources including funding for students to attend courses, funding to conduct the courses, and funding to pay instructor salaries

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, required DAU to establish a centralized mechanism to allocate resources whereby each Component's training was to be centrally funded by the University—including the cost of courses and associated travel and per diem. ATRRS Army Training Requirements and Resources System was selected as the centralized mechanism.
