

SUMMARY OF REGULATIONS IMPLEMENTING SIX ELEMENTS REQUIRED BY DAWIA

A Charter

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, published the charter for the university structure. The charter established a collaborative relationship between DAWIA, Directors of Acquisition Career Management (DACMS), functional boards, and the Director Acquisition Education Training and Career Development (AET&CD).

A Mission (to include developing education, training, research, and publications capabilities in the area of acquisition)

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, published DAWIA's mission to (1) train professionals for effective service in the Defense Acquisition System, (2) achieve more efficient and effective use of available acquisition resources by coordinating DoD acquisition education and training programs and tailoring them to support the careers of personnel in acquisition positions, and (3) develop education, training, research, and publications capabilities in the area of acquisition.

Lines of Authority

DoD Directive 5000.57, Defense Acquisition University, issued October 21, 1991, established DAWIA's organization and management. A consortium structure was established to serve under a President who reported to the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition). Consortium members remained part of their existing commands.
