

Ms. Barbara Glotfelty

Procurement Analyst,

Office of the Undersecretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics

Ms. Glotfelty is a procurement analyst on the staff of the Director of Defense Procurement (DDP), Office of the Undersecretary of Defense for Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics. She assists in developing acquisition strategies; monitors the business aspects of major defense acquisition programs; and represents DDP on the Defense Acquisition Policy Working Group, which developed Defense Acquisition Deskbook content and is writing the new DoD 5000.2-R regulation.

Working for the Navy, OFPP, and Air Force, she negotiated contracts, developed and implemented policy, and reviewed major solicitations and contracts. She has BA and MS degrees, and is a Certified Professional Contracts Manager.