

Ms. Janet Marshall

Chief, Estimating Section, Estimating & Scheduling Branch, Cost Division, USAF Aeronautical Systems Command (ASC)

Responsible for planning, organizing and directing teams in cost, schedule and risk analysis of highly complex weapon systems. Currently, ASC's co- lead for Integrated Risk Management, assisting programs in the development and management of executable programs by providing risk management guidance, training, and tools. Served as Chief, Financial Management and Schedule Branch for the Aircraft System Program Office. Other experiences include leading projects in the F-22, F-15, C-17, SRAM II, Advanced Cruise Missile, Aeronautical Equipment and Engine program offices. BS in Business/Psychology from Wright State University (Dayton, OH) and MSA in Business Management from Central Michigan University.