A premier corporate university enabling a motivated, agile DoD Acquisition, Technology, and Logistics Workforce

Our Commitment . . .

At DAU, we strive to provide our customers an experience marked by:

Quality

of our products

Relevance

of our learning solutions

Responsiveness

of our faculty and staff

Connection

with others from the AT&L community

To ensure we meet your needs, we have established evaluation and feedback mechanisms for each of our products and services. Your comments are not just put on a shelf; we carefully analyze them and make timely, effective enhancements to our learning solutions.

Training Courses

Certification Assignment-Specific Executive and Leadership Support

Our more than 1,200 course offerings are delivered in a classroom setting at one of our five regional campuses or ten satellite locations, or via the Internet. Courses are also taught at customer sites.

Feedback Tool

At the end of each course, we survey students on several aspects of the course including course content, course work, faculty, and job applicability. Faculty members and course managers have full access to the results for their courses. Both faculty and course managers review results and work to address shortfalls. After 60 days, we e-mail each student a follow-up survey. After six months, we follow up with randomly selected managers of our students to better determine organizational impact.

Performance Support

Consulting Targeted Training Rapid Deployment Training

Our performance-support services are provided to DoD and civilian agencies to help them resolve individual project and agency-level acquisition problems. We also provide immediate training on new policy initiatives and training targeted at an organization's unique needs.

Feedback Tool

At the end of each consulting-effort, the customer is asked to provide feedback. Following each targeted training event, students respond to an online course survey similar to the one used for certification and assignment-specific courses. DAU reviews the results for both consulting and targeted training efforts and incorporates improvements.

Continuous Learning

Continuous Learning Modules

The AT&L workforce is required to take 80 hours of continuous learning every two years. To help meet that need, DAU offers a wide variety of continuous learning modules on many topics. We are constantly adding modules to keep the workforce abreast of changes in policy.

For more info:

<http://clc.dau.mil>
or 703-805-3459
1-866-568-6924

Feedback Tool

At the end of each DAU-developed Continuous Learning Module is a course feedback survey. Students must complete the survey before they receive their certificate of completion. Course owners review the survey results for their courses and incorporate improvements. Non-course comments or site-specific technical questions about the CLC can be e-mailed to: dauhelp@dau.mil.

Knowledge Sharing

AT&L Knowledge Sharing System Acquisition Community Connection Virtual Library

DAU hosts the AT&L Knowledge System, consisting of the AT&L Knowledge Sharing System (AKSS) and the Acquisition Community Connection (ACC). AKSS is the central gateway for all AT&L resources and information. ACC is the collaborative arm with a variety of knowledge communities.
