The DAU Knowledge Repository (KR) and Acker Archives provides products, via both physical and virtual environments, and exceptional user-oriented service, that satisfies the 21st Century Defense Acquisition Workforce’s need for user-defined, job-oriented knowledge and situational awareness.

By providing this, the DAU KR and Acker Archives enhances individual and workforce ability to provide the warfighter necessary capability within allocated resources.

Obtaining Access to the DAU Knowledge Repository

The DAU Knowledge Repository is restricted to DoD Government employees who are members of the Defense Acquisition Workforce (DAW). The most current DAW listing, which is updated quarterly, has been provisioned for members to have automatic access to the site. If you are a new member who did not appear on the previous listing, your access will be automatically granted with the next update.
